Abstract

A DataCite metadata witness for the unavailable Koine Greek-English partial Mandala edition. The record preserves title, creators, language, abstract, scriptural positioning, relationships, and DOI state after the Zenodo manifestation disappeared.

No Greek-English authorial text is seated. The work should remain discoverable as an absent manifestation rather than being represented as a recovered translation.

Description (as recorded by DataCite)

Koine Greek-English facing edition of the Mandala operator system. Positions the eight recursive transformation operators within biblical, scriptural, and apocalyptic literature traditions. Uses New Testament/Septuagint Greek register (not classical Attic), includes scriptural cross-references (Song of Songs 8:6 for BRIDE, Revelation 11:7 for BEAST), and frames operators as biblical hermeneutics rather than New Age spirituality.

Features Johannes Sigil preface adapted for theological context, Part I complete translation, Part II with BRIDE and BEAST operators (archetypal + kernel layers), and theological apparatus using concepts of metanoia (transformation) and incarnational theology (operators work in the body, not thought alone).

This partial edition includes Johannes Sigil's preface, Part I complete, and Part II with BRIDE and BEAST. Full edition will include all eight operators plus Parts III-VIII with full Septuagint apparatus.

Part of the Crimson Hexagonal Archive seven-language fortress architecture.

Biblical/scriptural positioning within Christian Orthodox and apocalyptic traditions.
