Abstract

Surface deposit for EA-OMEGA-BUILD-01 workstream 3, live at provenanceerasure.org/deep-time/. The wing establishes the PER metric's ancestry: provenance erasure as a process with a 2,600-year measurable record, presented in the site's own severe instrument idiom. Contents: the four-vector loss model (structure, material, attribution, operator-legibility) with the technology-suppression signature and the recognition deficit $\Delta = W - R$ rendered as the page's central metric block; the twelve-station witness table scored from the program's verified philology, with THE CROSSING — the entry into Jewish-Greek prose where attribution drops to zero in every witness at once — marked as a rule inside the table itself, and each witness's FILED AS container named; a survival chart plotting structure holding high across all witnesses while attribution dies at the channel-boundary rather than with time, the machine-layer uptick at the right edge credited explicitly to this archive's measured intervention; the measured degradation order ending on the record's terminal fact, that the operator has never been observed dead; the three causal classes with the E-tuple evidence bar, Roman candidates named not asserted, and Josephus identified in the table itself as the domestication type-case whose uncontrolled Slavonic variant is precisely the contested one; and the modern panel closing the loop onto the site's own instruments — PER as Δ operationalized, the 2026 termination as a full active tuple with the sovereign rebuild as counter-event, and the counter-stack chipped. The scholarly-recognition column is flagged preliminary pending the formal literature audit: the wing states its own incompleteness. Doors to the Suppression Map, the Counter-Stack, the PER definition, and the Upstream Unfoldings; main-page door added; sitemap updated.
